FINDING YOUR COMMUNITY
Why You Don’t Want To and Why You Must

By Jessica Patay
Founder and Executive Director of We Are Brave Together

WEAREBRAVETOGETHER.ORG
The loneliness of only-ness is detrimental to our mental and physical health.
“It is human nature and our birthright to find a place where we feel BELONGING.

- Jessica Patay
3 Reasons Why You Don’t Want To Find Your Community

1. You are too busy

2. You are afraid you will become more sad

3. You have been burned before
3 Reasons Why You Must Find Your Community

1. You deserve it
“When you meet other parents who GET YOU, and get your story, it is comforting and transformative.”

- Jessica Patay
3 Reasons Why You Must Find Your Community

1. You deserve it

2. It is critical to your mental health

3. It is an act of rebellion and self-compassion
Prader-Willi Syndrome Association | USA • www.pwsausa.org • (941) 312-0400
SELF-COMPASSION
as defined by Dr. Kristin Neff

Self-compassion involves acting the same way towards yourself when you are having a difficult time, fail, or notice something you don’t like about yourself, treating yourself as you would your best friend. You feel warmth and caring and a desire to help the suffering friend in some way. You offer understanding and kindness, rather than any judgment.

https://self-compassion.org/
Community is a balm that soothes intense isolation.

- Jessica Patay
YOU DESERVE TO BE IN A SUPPORTIVE COMMUNITY!
THANK YOU!

WEAREBRAVETOGETHER.ORG

JPATAY@WEAREBRAVETOGETHER.ORG

Listen to the BRAVE TOGETHER PODCAST on Apple Podcasts or Spotify.
THANK YOU

www.pwsausa.org

Info@pwsausa.org

(941) 312-0400